St. Johnsbury

Caledonian.

COMMENCED, AUGUST 8, 1837.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VT., FRIDAY, NOV. 15, 1867.

VOLUME 31 - NUMBER 1581

M STONE & CO., Proprietors. 4 - next loor North of Court House.

Rates of Advertising.

5. 1. BROOKS, M. D.,

O. S. BURKE,

G. B. BULLARD,

" Bir g' am's Drug Store.

JOHN BACON, 2d,

F. B. GAGE. ARTIST.

mer and cheaper than elsewhere

WM. A. BAKER,

BAUNESS MAKER,

DR. F. H. FALES.

GEO. S. SHAW.

INSIEANCE AGENT

CLIVER T. BROWN,

CLAIM AGENT,

Johnsburg, . . . Verme

C. S. HADLEY.

aliroad Street, - St. Johnston, Vt.

secorner of Main Street and East in Avenue.

NAME FACT: SEE, STEAM MILLS.

R. B. BLACKSTONE'S

apposite Passenger Deput.

E. A. VARNEY, M. D.

STELLAN AND STRUEON

dies opposite Bingham's Drug Store,

Miscellancous Cards.

L. W. HUBBARD,

G. P. SPENCER.

CASPIAN HOUSE,

HIRAM A. CUTTING.

to long, . . . Verment,

EO. C. & GEO. W. CAHOON,

WILLIAM W. GROUT,

AND AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,

Try of a First Book South of Drug Sto

DUPEE, BECK & SAYLES.

SHOCK BROKERS.

- vate Street, Boston, Mass

THE GROVER & BAKER

Was discurers of every variety of

Adapted to Family Use

MERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

DR. G. W. MILES,

C. BURPEE, PROPRIETOR

STULAN AND STREEDN.

POS GRAZESTONES, AND ORNAMENTAL WO

DR. J. L. PERKINS.

one- over Hall & Peck's Store.

REEDN BESTIST.

Water and Central Streets, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

AND AND OF STREET AND OIL

HASBURY PORTRAIT GALLERY

- rea McLinetype- and Dife-size Photographs.

FINIT AT LAW,

- - St. Johnsbury, Vi.

DAVIS & BRADFORD, Publishers. psychle in advance at the office psychle in advance psychle Notice. Each onberiber will find on his on with his address, the date to hearts. When a new payment is made this need to consequend—and if the change

Another talks largely about business, dinner party given by Edward Everett. ery in the first of second paper from this plans, his speculations, his travels Being offered wine from that gentleman's prenent, we wish to be notified immediand his common sense, thinking that af- own had, he refused it to the surprise ter he has impressed women with a sense and apparent indignation of all present. half the victory is won.

Another raises his hat about a foot act, by whomsoever performed, all wofrom the head on windy days, and bows men must feel like kneeling. his body about three feet toward the Women dislike men who match penearth; rushes to pick up a handkerchief nies, play mumble peg and marbles (all as though the fair owner was drowning three may be classed under the same and he was about to save her; never head) as much as men dislike women speaks of any matter but what he sup- who play with rag dolls. poses will please her, and he almost in- Women have the most thorough const Hointsbury Business Cards. that there are vital interests to both as slide his arm about her waist, or kiss her Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., 94,000 1. IAN AND SURGEON, we shall not have any American chil- an open insult, and when a lady, through

O & SIGN PAINTER, GLAZIER & PAPERER to the right, up Stairs, I man Block, side of the question, and are always ask- she is the one woman of the world, and ing, "Can be support me?"

* *kept in good style and at reasonable for the best trait fishing in the sate. The MENT CLAIM AND INSURANCE AGENT.

The JAMES BEEK. HENCY SAFERS. WING MACHINE COMPANY ANUFACTURING PURPOSES ITER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO. canches in all the Principal Cities.

our root as one of the most successful partitioners with whom I have had only to the CHAS. MANON.

C

AGENTS WANTED!

WESTERN TICKETS!

tive to Women.

From the Cleveland Leader.

the war, did a noble thing at a large worth the winning. of his greatness and their littleness that If it was an open rebuke to them, it was only adhering to the right! To such an

to special the redding reducers. variably supposes wrongly; puts a com- tempt for a man, who, on any occasion regards society, city and country, and after he has waited on her home. Such talks of the last concert, theatre, opera, a man would steal her virtue if he dared, babies. It is unfashionable to speak of those things are purchased rather than them, unfashionable to have them, un-stolen. I would as quickly brand as a Point, when he started out as a gay rol-melt back into peaceful citizens, first in make a horse tamer than any thing else Harvard College, Cambridge, fashionable to be seen showing any in- villain a young man who took such a licking young lieutenant, down to with- the arts of peace as first in war. Eng- except shooting him. terest in them; and by and by, the liberty with a sister of mine, as one who with the arts of peace as first in war. Eag- except shooting min.

Wars. Stocking. (Albany, N. Y.) Kenyon College, Gambier, O., 35,000 father sold old Pomp and bought a beauwhole thing is becoming so unfashionable, had openly insulted her. Indeed, this is dren, except a few born in the extreme fear of losing his friendship, or from at- at all their foot races, and in a short race and she has ever till now predicted our beaten so hally for the Hellenic purse by country or in back alleys, whose moth- fection for him, receives it, she inwardly ers did not learn the fashion in time. ceases to respect him, saying, with truth, has attended their feasts and eaten, with- tues than estates. Our past is merit, not became discouraged, and haven't done N. W. Christian University, In-

Another works hard all the week, man does allow it, she must be verdant,

Some men, in the above way, and and saying, as I have heard them say

live or eight dollars, spends two for a learned this, and never marry a girl they Indian soup when the big brazen dish in cibly depicted here. The rebels made made the tastest time over a stone road ! Otterbein University, Westerville, concert, three for a ride, and three more can fondle before she is their own. for a supper, using that dollar he took | Women dislike a man who pays comfrom his employer's drawer so as to have pliments. There is a young professional a surplus in case of an emergency, pay- christian man, not a thousand miles from ing all this for a girl who, accustomed to Cleveland, who, though having a lovely it for a half dozen years from a half doz- wife, calls upon unmarried ladies, talks en sources, never expresses nor feels any to them about their bright eyes, winning and now, at the age of sixty-seven years, are of right the champions of our future. hind. gratitude. He keeps his pockets full of ways, etc., thus making people believe confectionaries to be generous, and this that he is either a fool or a hypocrite. young lady and that say, "Isn't it fun Married people cannot be too careful. to ride with Smith?" but never say, If a married man wants to be thought "Wouldn't it be fun to get Smith for a "perfectly splendid" by all the young husband !" They say, rather, "I don't ladies of the town, let him be thoroughly believe he will support a wife very well; devoted to his wife. Let them see him he spends too much!" There is much put a shawl about her shoulders, a scarf sentimental talk and sentimental affect about her throat, bring a chair for her tion, and really much pure love, but when she is standing, take care lest she young women, for the most part, have, over-exerts herself; let him make her and rightly, too, a "bread and butter," and all others about her feel that to him they will be pointing him out as a model things with one aim, viz.; the admira- married! Isn't she fortunate? I wish tion of society, which is to say the admi- I could have a husband just like him." ration of women. That women like Women hate, and the word is very some of these things is not for moment tame, an immoral man -one who lures disputed. They like a neatly kept neck, unsuspecting girls to ruin, or one who a well combed head, a good fitting boot, pollutes himself with those already pu-They like to have a man talk just enough trid with sin. A man who tramples on - Vermont, (1920% about himself to show that he has some the virtue of the sex should never be alsense and some business power. They lowed to touch the hand or face or form fike a hat raised slightly, and a bow as of a pure woman. Such men are receivthough men honored the sex because they ed in society by some women, because had mothers sisters or wives. They like they, like their brothers, like to see how to have men occasionally give them an near they can come to the precipice and inexpensive ride, or take them to a con- not be dashed into pieces, but the majorcert or a supper, if they, by so doing, are lity receive such men into their company not going beyond their means; but they ignorantly. They hold asps in their never respect him for doing that. In- hands without knowing it, and are poisdeed, they think men really foolish, lack- oned in their innocence. It is strange ing sense and judgment, in spending so that such men can come before a sex much upon them when it should have whom they have foully wronged and be been saved for a family in the future, the as gallant as though they had not put head of which every man living expects daggers in the hearts of a dozen girls. some time to be. They like a man who The time will come when those who igent human beings, or as though he de- misery upon their victims or early deaths sired to make them such, who introduces by attempted abortions, will be looked cannot afford to dwarf your mind to sight so beautiful in this world as a young An erroneous idea has crept into soci- whom a fond father labors every day, ety that it is not polite to speak upon any and goes home at night to clasp them subject with which the other is not fa- both to his heart and protect them miliar. It may be thus between men through their sleep, so there is nothing A Westerner on Napoleon Third. the foot. We, however, enease the Quick as thought the dominie turned, more (with charcoal) to work out the sion. The lady having opened her griefs, men, and women and women, but never so pitiable as a young mother struggling between the sexes. Every man of obser- day after day with her weak, fired hands vation knows that women are like chil- to support her baby, feeding her own such as walk on Chestnut street, near air and moisture, and generally meomdrea in this respect; glad to learn, proud strength to it, loathed by women, jeered Ninth, with wide, "loud" pantaloons, fortably hard and rigid. The color and gave vent to his pent up feelings as fol- on an axletree. to be made the recipients of knowledge, at by men; no father to love it or her, carefully brushed hat, sidewise, moody polish of our boots are directly calcu-MACHINES. proud that sensible, educated men take her prospects of a happy home and a look, a complexion arcenically bronzed, lated to attract the sun's rays: and the word again, you low, dirty scoundrel! dies bizzy.—Josh Billings. time and pains to talk with them sensi- kind husband all gone forever, just to as if the arcenic had not quite "taken," enamel on patent leather and the black- I've stood this abuse as long as I possibly. Men might fear that women would give a season of pleasure to the wretch and eyes which were so used to avoiding ing on ordinary calfskin, tends to harden bly can: I try to be a Christian. I have KIND INQUIRIES.—Cousin Kate was a feel a sense of shame at their ignorance; who spends his money freely upon fash- the introspection of himself, that they and solidify the substance, closing the followed Christ in my weak way for sweet, wide-awake beauty of about sev on the contrary, they pacify themselves ionable young ladies, and perhaps at last, could not dare to look directly into any pores, and making air-tight cases for a nearly forty years. But I belong to a enteen, and she took it into her head to by saying, "We are women, and, there- after having ruined himself mentally and man's face. Realize such a person, and portion of the body which exudes more church that believes in falling from grace. go down on Long Island to see some refore, not expected to know such things." physically, as well as morally, marries a you have the genuine type of the sove- perspiration than any other, and is sub- And if you do, you'll get one of the all- lations of hers, who had the misfortune I was at a tea-table where an educated good woman who wears her curse parely in the contest thrashings you ever had in your to live there. Among those relations white she returned from the contest white she returned from the contest thrashings you ever had in your to live there. Among those relations whack! whack who was a state of the contest of the con p soot to nome instituting, briting, cold-one, or performing any kind of plan or young man happened to mention Cicero. There are not words grizzled. His thick eyebrows cover a summer parboil our feet in a warm bath. Life. I wouldn't advise you to try it on, there chanced to be a young swain who by a ground from the good man's lips. The hostess, a lovely woman and an ex- strong enough to express the disgust all pair of gray, expressionless eyes, bent and in winter freeze them in an icy en- for I've made up my mind to do just that had seen Kate on a previous occasion, cellent house-keeper, presided with real feel for a man who, faithless to his mar- over on the ground. His face has pur- velope. It is doubtful if wet feet are, thing." It is needless to say the ex- and seeing, fell deeply in love with her. grace at the neatest of tables, inquired riage vows, comes home to his pure wife ple hues in it, as of bile beneath the skin. in themselves, very conducive to disease, member concluded it was time to "dry He called at the house on the evening of "Who?" as though the name was strange and innocent children, receives a love he He roves in public with an affected ga- some medical men to the contrary, not- up." to her. He, with a manly kindness, in has no longer a right to claim or they to liety, and will always speak to you if you withstanding; but cramped confinement a way that never intimated that she was give. Women never marry such men if remove your hat, when he walks or of the feet in an icy cold envelope, gen- Journalistic .- The salary of Theo- air in company with two or three of her ignorant, spoke of the great orator and of they know it, any more than good men drives. A desperate eminence, a self-erated by perspiration, and chilled by the exciting times in which he lived and marry bad women; and when it comes stabbing vanity, a quick perception that the external atmosphere, thus shutting is $5,000 a year. H. Eddy, Solicitor of Patents, acted, and thus Roman history was after marriage, they bear with it usually, detects all signs, though it may misinter- the imprisoned feet almost air-tight, is as Robert Bonner, it is stated, realizes a made a delightful topic of conversation. till death relieves them of their suffering. pret many of them, but beyond all other unhealthy as it is uncomfortable. Women hate a man who drinks intox- What kind of a man, then is attractional feats, masters the great one, that he him- For hot weather, there is hardly any Leder. leating liquors, whether in the shape of tive to woman? The answer can be self is a false heart in a false place. Be-shoe so agreeable as that introduced The salary of Horace Greeley ($7,500) choice wine in dainty cut glasses, or poor given in a few words: God has so made wond these things the gambler's blunted within the past three or four years, as Editor-in-chief of the Tribune is much the sexes that women, like children, cling moral sentiment, that is apt to mistake a known as the army shoe, and extensive- the highest paid in New York. that the scenes enacted at Saratoga this to men; lean upon them for protection treacherous act, if it be clever, for an ly used by base ball players. It is of a The entire force of the Herald, includsummer have given the lie to this: that and care and love: look up to them as able one. This is Louis Napoleon, as I heavy canvas and unblacked leather. It ing editors, reporters and correspondents dranken women were almost as common though they were superior in mind and believe him to be, to the world and to is cool and remarkably casy to the feet, is said to number about 200 men, the most successful as drunken men. It is sadly true that body. They make them the suns of himself. He is not far from 60 years of The texture of the canvas allows the essome women with a desire to be brilliant their system, they and their children re- age. In those 60 years he has lived all cape of the perspiration, and the color tor of the Herald at $10,000 a year, be- bybefore men, to be genial and friendly, volve around them. Men are gods if the gambler's experience-penury, re- of the shoe does not attract the heat of gam in that office as a messenger-boy at and with little respect for themselves and they but knew it, and women burning morse, licentiousness, homelessness, de- the sun. It would seem that the plan of a salary of $2 a week, still less for men, with tight dresses and incense at their shrines. Women, there- pendence, politics, travel, speculation, covering other portions of bodies with The New Orleans papers have the lose morals, make themselves beastlike. fore, who have good minds and pure sudden prosperity, reputation, absolute- material pervious to air, might advan- fewest readers and the largest advertising The la applications, on loose morais, make themselves beastinke. Tore, who have good minds and pure student prospersy, and Much has been said about women being hearts, want men to lean upon. Think ism. His mother was a milliner in cartageously be extended to our feet. There patronage, in proportion to the population of the population commend examples in this respect, but if men are of their reverencing a drunkard, a har, a ly life, the daughter of Josephine. She is no natural reason why our feet should tion, of any journals in the country. patents, the head and women are to look up to fool, or a libertine. them for protection and knowledge, then If a man would have a woman do him leon Bonaparte, not by will, but by com- They become indurated and deprived of return from his round-the-world voyage they must expect that women will copy homage he must be manly in every sense mand, and separating from him within a their natural activity by long, close con- for the Herald, was $5,000 in gold and a state their doings. When, in thus imitating, -a true gentleman; not a Chesterfield little while, lived the life of a gay French finement. The people of warm climates which that journal promptly paid. As wives shall be drunk every night, and school, but polite because his heart is full woman, having children out of wedlock. who use their toes as we do our fingers, only ten of his letters were printed, they every alternate night spend in the unhal- of kindness to all; one who treats her Louis Napoleon was never owned by and the bare-footed school boy, who cost the Herald $500 each in coin. That to santed in every town in Vermont to sell the lowed embrace of some friend of their with respect, even deference, because she his father as his legitimate son. With picks up, and throws pebbles with his is not quite as expensive as the captured another question came— THE WORLD SOAP! husbands', men will begin to open their is a woman; who never condescends to this loose mother the young man lived a feet, show that the foot of the civilized correspondents, Richardson and Browne. at drealar sent on receipt of 25 cts. Agents eves upon the terrible wreck they are say silly things to her; who brings her strolling life till the son of Bonaparte, adult in our climate is a much abused were to the Tribune. Their bill was the front sent on receipt of the etc. Agents making of society to-day. It is true that up to his level if his mind is above hers; by his second marriage, died. This left member. A more flexible and porous some $3,500 when they escaped from (ALEDONIAN. What Kind of a Man is Attrac- seem not only unable to refuse women never yields to temptation, even if she France, he made two invasions of her but unable to refuse their own sex; or, puts it in his way; who is ambitious to territory. Six years in jail was the reif refusing, do it with a "Not this time make his mark in the world whether she sult of this, and here he wrote among H. B. H. (Or'skany, N. Y.)-The been one of unexampled liberality tothank you!" or, "I am too busy just encourages him or not; who is never fa- other things, a socialistic essay. When celebrated trotter Ethan Allen is not the ward our higher educational institutions All men, unless they are some who now!" so living a lie and killing their miliar with her to the extent of being an Louis Phillippe was overturned in 1848, Ethan Allen that captured Ticonderoga. Our colleges old and new, have received have no self-respect, desire to be attract- own influence over those very parties at adopted brother or cousin: who is over- he went to Frahee, and bearing the name. That wasn'r his forte. $2.00 ive to women, and use various means to the same time. There is some appreciations and of Bonaparte, found no difficulty in beaccomplish it. One swings a cane, wears tion of truth and right in the world, but considerate, but always keeping his place ing elected to congress. This was the Dexter never went to school a day in his new vigor, while adding to their means postsgo on the Caledonian to sub-famey neck ties, buys the latest style of very little brave standing up and doing as a man, the head, and at the age of 40, life; he prefered to go to horse races. of usefulness. Some idea of the aggre-Is free; to any part of the United hat, whether able or not, puts his feet better for it. Colonel Clarke, Professor Such deportment, with noble princi- France was now a Republic. Rising He has been around considerable, and gate amount of these benefactions may

There are seven men in the new Indian peace commission, but to the Indians only one, and he General Harney. Tall. straight and excessively polite, brave as 1823 to join an Indian commission), from soundly several times, and once terribly petual severeign of France. - Paris Cor. shoes are not obtained at the horseshoe Cornell University, N. Y., at White Ash Hollow, in 1855), as well as from his elegant personnel, Gen. Har- Chaplain Brastow's Oration Bepliment here and there; ignores the fact that offers, tries either to caress her or He knows Indians, not from the docunev is just the man for the commission. ments which moulder in the Washington archives, not from having dwelt with without showing that his nose was of potential past. The characteristics of and dam'd by all Troy. boards in a cheap place that he may save or she is not to be trusted: but men have fended at "Indian smell." He has eaten the patriotism of revolutionary days for Festock. (Sheboygan.)—Who has Oberlin College, Oberlin, O., which it was brought on to the table was the blunder of thinking that we had for. Ans. Old Put., when he beat the Brit- Ohio, some in better and higher, are doing these "What a pity that all the nice men are point of view, not indpendent but rich, caused such an expenditure of precions As to his opinions on Indian matters, blood, and toil and treasure. talks to them as though they were intel- bring disgrace upon families and life-long and then, above all, and over them all, interspersed by very hearty applause.—

Sherman, the common sense of Sanborn, ilians, gentlemen and ladies, which filled the book knowledge and piety of Taylor, the hall to overflowing, and it was often to hear the blunt experience of General Burlington Free Press. science, art, or travel. What if they are upon by the law as murderers, and pun-Harney bursting forth with an "Egad, not conversant with such matters, you ished accordingly. While there is no comes a pointed experience and a story mother caressing a lovely child, for pat to the mark, and facts and history a la N. P. Willis that he is winning whose name was so honorably known in will win any woman in the land who is Franchmen as if the nephew of George | Giles. (Westmoreland, N. Y.) | which we find in the Yale Courant, and General Harney and the Indians. Louis Napoleon Bonaparte was elected Horse pistols come up from Colt's revolv- in the way of land grants, to the Agri-filled the army and the public bureaus some standard work on the horse. If of Mr. Cornell was made in 1865, but is cause it was the bue of the sunny sky she with his adherents, proclaiming himself you haven't any horse to read it on, then given below, as it was not applied until meanwhile a zealous republican, and read it on foot. a lion, and having no political ax to suddenly he made a coup d'etat, or ruler's Kean. (Buffalo.)—The "pale horse" Albion College, Albion Mich., $25,000 had had blue dresses before, spotted, and grind, from his former connection with revolution, massacred the resisting peo- never trotted to harness that we ever Baldwin University, Berea, O., 103,000 striped, and plaid, but this, as she told the Indians (for he left Baton Rouge in ple, proclaimed the empire, and by af- heard of. As for trotting against Time, Beloit College, Beloit, Wis., frighting the peasants and country inter- he is death on it. his record (for he has whipped them ests, engaged them to confirm him per- ANAII. (Portland, Me.)-Horse College of N. J., Princeton, > fore the Officers' Re-union Society.

Plala. Inquirer.

leaned by the reception of a thorough gotten that past. But we had not, and ish of the "rock." He came out a neck Rutgers college, New Brunswick wiping with a shirt by the Indian master it was our glory and her strength, when ahead, although it was thought he N. J., of ceremonies. In short he has been in the time of trial came. And now our wouldn't at one time. Shortly after that Shurtleff College, Upper Alton,

Rome and done as Romans do. In per- newer past has joined on to the elder, event a British racer, Major Andre, ran Ill., son he is six feet four inches, very erect, and the men who have made such a past for a big prize and came out a neck be- Tufts College, Medford, Mass., 30,000 the fire with no power to rescue them, heavy gold guard chain, owns an elegant men and the traitors; between those Times. summer residence not far from St. Louis, who would build up and those who a plantation in Louisiana, and spends his would break down the nation. As invinters at his elegant mansion in St. dividuals we can forgive, but as a peo-Louis. Early and judicious real estate ple we show ourselves emasculate it was investments have made him in a worldly patronize and reward the men who have they have had more weight than those of We have but noted some of the salient all the rest of the commission. Never points. The discourse was a fine one, forward in offering them, they every one eloquent in its tributes to the fallen, and sought him out and found that he was a its assertion of the rights and duties of perfect mine of Indian knowledge. It the living, sound and manly in sentiment, was really amusing, ves refreshing, to and interesting in manner and matter. listen to the theoretical dreamings of It was listened to with close interest and Tappan, the dictatorial ipse dixits of attention by an audience of soldiers, civenough with it all to satisfy the most ex- not, as yet, produced a proper covering wretch commenced his abuse. The dom- the frog does, and dont alwayes land at School Teacher. acting. — Correspondence of Cincinnati for the feet. Barbarous people, if their inic, as he was leaving the room, made the spot he iz looking at Did you ever see a bloated gambler, leg, in a material almost impervious to parel, and stepping up to the astonished man in it.

The Turf.

next presidency under that revered name. from horse chestnuts is preposterous, no account is made of the amount given, president of France. Straightway he ers, don't they? You had better read cultural Colleges. The handsome gift fall, Niagara, they are grown on horse Cornell College, Mount Vernon, FREE PRESS Boy. (Detroit.)—Flora Cumberland University, Lebanon, Temple wssa't of the Mormon Temple, Ten.,

Salt Lake City. It is another family. Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. The subject, briefly stated, was "The J. W. F. (Cleveland, O.)-Will H., them as an honest Indian agent, but patriotism of the past and of the future." you please inform me how to make a Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., 100,000 among them since his graduation at West patriotism caused our mighty army to horse a dose of laudinum; that will Hanover College, Hanover, Ind., 25,000 respect and admiration, for, when young, meant that we had no hereditary aris- -Troy hasn't produced any good horses Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., 90,000 tiful new pony with a blue tail and being very athletic, he beat the Indians tocracy. We cut loose from her past, in several years. When the Trojans were Lawrence University, Appleton, has never been beaten by an Indian. He downfall. But it is better to inherit vir- the "Greek Horse," from Doublin, they McKendree College, Lebanon; Ill, 20,000 other folks were dreaming happy dreams, Nearly the whole baby population will "If he caresses me unlawfully, he does so out making wry faces, cooked dog. He blood. True, our history is short—our anything in the horseline since. The diamapolis, Ind., to all others whom he can." If a wo- has danced with the voluptuous squaws heroes are not half cloud: but we had a Greek horse was sired by Agamemmon Norwich University, Northfield chats in French with all the vivacity of Chaplain Brastow proceeded to discuss Tucker. (Rome, N. Y.)-What Miss., a pert school-girl. A well balanced the patriotism of the future. He de- causes heaves in horses ? Ans.—Sick- University of Chicago, Chicago, head, neither large nor painfully small, scribed the different kinds of that virtue ness at the stomach. Horses are a good | Ill., neither hald on the top nor covered with not forgetting the selfish patriotism which deal like human beings. If they ain't Wabash College, Crawfordsville, all over with snowy locks that are parted to break up, the government-the only Brack. (La Crosse, Wis.)-Your Washington University, St. Louis, straggling hairs at the sides, but clothed only asks, will it pay lest to sustain, or sick at the stomach they won't heave. as carefully, and brushed as smoothly as kind that section which claims to repre- plan for warming a stable in the winter Mo., hose of a French dancing master, he is sent the chivalry of the nation has pos- by setting fire to it, might work if the Weslevan University, Middletown, most attentive to ladies, which fact, tak- sessed. When we have fully secured the stable was sufficiently insured. A neigh- Conn., en in connection with his silvery locks, fruits of the war, it must be our main bor of ours built himself a splendid stable Western University. Pittsburg, may justify the remark once made by the political question how we shall develope last winter, furnished it with all the Pa., Irish barrister, Mr. Quinn, of an aged a more patriotic South. As essential to modern improvements, gas, hot and cold Yale College, New Haven, Conn. 206,000 grew quiet, and knowing that she was but rakish client, "like Ætna, your hon- this he showed the necessity of inculcat- water, &c. One of his creditors got out or, on whose summit are snows the year ing the sentiment of respect for the au- an execution on it and he-warmed it. round, the frosts above have not chilled thority of the government. Granting Science was weggers. (Madison, Wis.)the fires below." Round the general's and insisting on our duty of forgiveness. There are all sorts of gaits among horses, chin, from ear to ear, a close cut white and of aiding to restore the wasted pros- Some have only one gait while others will the little pig; he is weared young, and her mind, and presently a bright thought beard, and on his upper lip a pert mous- perity of the South, it is still necessary take every gate they come to . No two tache, to the ends of which a Napoleonic as involving the authority and dignity of horses run alike. While one runs to twirl has attached itself. He carries eve the government, to make a difference, and grass another runs away to skin and alspice of the world.

> one of his members - one of those touchy, aint sudden enuff for this climate. irascible saints of which nearly every The live man iz full ov bizziniss as the Then the mother lifted the child's face and tried in every way to effect a recon- what the Lord only knows. had labored personally with him earnest- a skoolboy haz Saturday afternoons. her then took every opportunity to in- ing each year. He slandered him, abused him to his face whole ov the rode.

profit of over $150,000 a year out of the married the youngest brother of Napo- be so much less sensitive than our hands. The bill of Thomas W. Knox, on his

LEGES.-The past collegiate year has

A GOOD YEAR FOR AMERICAN COL-

be gathered from the following table, Washington were a candidate for the Your idea of chestnut horses growing believe to be trustworthy. In this list within the last year :

Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me, 27,000 and pretty enough for a queeen to wear.

Iowa.

University of Mississippi, Oxford,

glasses, gold bound of course, sports a a prodigious difference between the loyal bones. - Fat Contributor of Cincinnati | One live man in a villiage iz like a away she ran to ask her mother's advice. case ov itch at a distrikt skool-he sets When evening came Dell went to the every boddy tew skratching at onst.

FALLING FROM GRACE .- A good story molassis in the munth of January thru a heart than hers. "What would I have told of a certain Methodist dominie of half inch augur hole, and sing "Home, done, mamma," she exclaimed as she finthe pioneer stamp. The dominic had in sweet home?" while the molassis is run- ished recounting the pleasures of the eveome way occasioned the displeasure of ming, may be strikingly honest, but he ming, "if it had not been for my white more representatives. The dominie like a hornet, verry bizzy, but about down into the sunny eyes, she said:

climate admits, go with bare feet, or some remark, to which the dissevered He iz the American pet, a perfekt Ax Affectionate Husband -A wear sandals, covering only the sole of member responded, "That's a d- lie." mistery to foreigners; but he haz done husband accompanied his wife to confeswhole of the foot, and a portion of the divested himselt of all unnecessary ap- greatness of the kuntry than enny other the father who was shriving her, insisted her arrival, and she met him on the piazza where she was enjoying the evening worst of sinners :"

The poor fellow was so bashful that he could not find his tongue for some claimed she; "remember only my sins. time. At length he stammered out: "How's your mother?"

"Quite well, thank you." Another silence on the part of Josh, during which Kate and her friends did the best they could to relieve the monotony. After waiting about fifteen minutes for him to commence to make himself agreeable, he again broke the spell "How's your father ?"

Which was answered much after the same manner as the first one, and then ollowed another silence like the other. "How's your father and mother?" gain put in the bashful lover.

"Quite well, both of them." This was followed by an exchange of glances and a suppressed smile. Silence lasted some ten minutes more, during which Josh was fidgetting in his seat and stroking his Sunday hat. But at length

"How's your parents?" This produced an explosion that made the woods ring, for the Young folks.

The White Dress.

There was to be a grand party at Squire Palmers mansion-only for the Nearly all the girls and boys in the villiage were invited, and among them. little Dell Harmon. She had never attended an evening party, and when she knew that she was really going, she was ready to dance for joy. Then too, she was to have a new blue dress to wear, and this made her still more happy, for blue was her favorite color, partly beloved so much, and partly owing to the fact that her dolly's eyes were blue. She 18,000 one of her playmates, was "blue all over.

The dress-maker had come in the 760,000 morning and fitted the dress and promising surely to return it the next afternoon 25,000 in time for the party, had taken it home with her to finish. So little Dell was 35,000 very happy that day, and at school, though she studied diligently, she could 35,000 not keep from sending a glance through the window now and then to the dressmaker's shop on the opposite side of the street, and when she went to sleep that night, every one of whom she dreamed, 400,000 was dressed in blue, and she thought her

But suddenly, while Dell and all the there came the cry of "tire! fire!" and 35,000 the great bells clanged their iron tongues, and startled all the town, but the alarm had come too late, for already the book 34,000 store and the dressmaker's shop adjoining it, wore a mass of flame, and the ef-30,000 forts to save them were utterly useless.

There was many valuable books lost 50,000 and the bookseller took his loss very much to heart, and the poor dressmaker, 80,000 when she saw her goods consuming in wrung her hands in dismay. But, for 25,000 the havor of the flames there was not a more sorry sufferer in the town than was 100,000 little Dell Harmon when she knew that she would never see again her beautiful 40,000 blue dress. She had expected to have such a merry time ; but now her dress 100,000 was burned to ashes, and she must remain at home, for all her other dresses 98,000 were old, or faded, or out-grown. For a full hour she wept and refused to be 95,000 comforted. By degrees, however, she making her mother sad by crying thus, $3.041,000 she wiped her eyes and tried to forget her disappointment. But try as she THE LIVE MAN .- The five man is like would, she could not keep it quite out of came to her: there was her white mus-He is the pepper sass of creation-the lin! It would look almost as well as new if it were only nicely ironed; and party in her neat white dress, and in all A man who kan draw New Orleans the room there was no happier little particular "charge" or "circuit" has one conductor of a street kar-he iz often lovingly between her hands, and looking iliation. He had "wrestled with the He lights up like a cotton faktory, and little girl ever need be troubled. Some Lord" in the erring brother's behalf. He haint got enny more time to spare than day there will come a message from the great mansion where the good Father , but all to no purpose : so he expelled | He iz like a dekoy duck, always above has His home, bidding us go up thither. in as a matter of duty. The ex-bro- water, and lives at least 18 munths dur- Then we may begin to ask what we shall wear, and if we have no 'white suit and wound the feelings of the pastor. He iz like a runaway hos; he gits the dress' how sad it will be! Only Christ can give us this beautiful apparel, and and behind his back, until the poor dom- He trots when he walks, and lies down though the fire may consume, and the ARE OUR FEET PROPERLY CLOTHED, inde could stand it no longer. Meeting at night only because every boddy else haz, moth and rust corrupt our every other -It is somewhat surprising that, with him one day in the post-office, where a The live man iz not always a deep dress, if we have this left we need not be all our boasted improvements, we have large crowd was collected, as usual, the thinker: he jumps as conclusions, just az afraid to stand before him."-Sunday on administering a severe penitential first stroke inflicted on his better half, delicate, and that, as he and she were one flesh, it would be better for him, as the stronger vessel, to receive the scourgfessor having consented to this substitution, the man knelt in his wife's place, while she retired from the confessional. "Harder! harder!" ejaculated the wife: "I am a grievous sinner!" Whack! whack! whack! "Lay it on!" cried she; "I am the Whack! whack! and a howl from the

"Never mind his eries, father!" ex-Make him smart here, that I may escape in purgatory."

A BIT OF A SLIVER.—Before Justice F., at San Juan, Nevada county, was brought an Hibernian, charged with assault and battery on a fellow-countryman. Many witnesses were examined, and finally Jimmy C. was called to the

"Mr. C. state what you know about this case."

"Well, your honor, Barney and Patrick had a bit of a quarrel about some wood tkey had been cutting. They were standing near the wood pile in front of the house, and after jawing a little. Barnev picked up a bit of a sliver, and give Patrick a little tap on the head, and he went over on to the wood pile-and that was all there was about it."

Justice F. "You say Barney hit Patrick on the head with a bit of a sliver. What kind of a sliver was that ?" "Well, your honor, 'twas a small thing-a bit of a chip." Speaker Colfax well says, "Every But we want to know how big it HASBERT, VI. wine has been offered young men by the who is never over-anxious to please her, him the Bonaparte heir to the throne. material for our boots and shoes might prison, and for that sum they wrote delicate hands of women. God will but always anxious to do right; who He began to write republican books to save us from many of those terrible an- about three columns, which was nearly stamp you put upon a deed, a check, or was; give us your idea how big it was." never forgive such, but if men half knew has no time to be frivilous with her; al- the Frenchmen, gathered around him a novances which, in the form of corns and $1,200 per column in currency. The a mortgage, is a Democratic sticking "Well, your honor, (after some hesita-WESTERN TICKETS:

The parts west over all desirable routes, for sale of their manhood they would have power to bunions, make our pilgrimage one of expenditures of New York journalism plaster to remind you of a democratic relicon, I think it was about two feet long, and be doubly respected. Men never spends too much money upon her; in the belief that he had adherents in pain.—Scientific American,